The sad little bug sat on a log
in the middle of the park.
Now it did not wink and blink.
The bug had lost its spark.

2

I crept up to the bug,
and I saw a little dent.
The spark flickered and went off.
The bug had its sparkler bent.

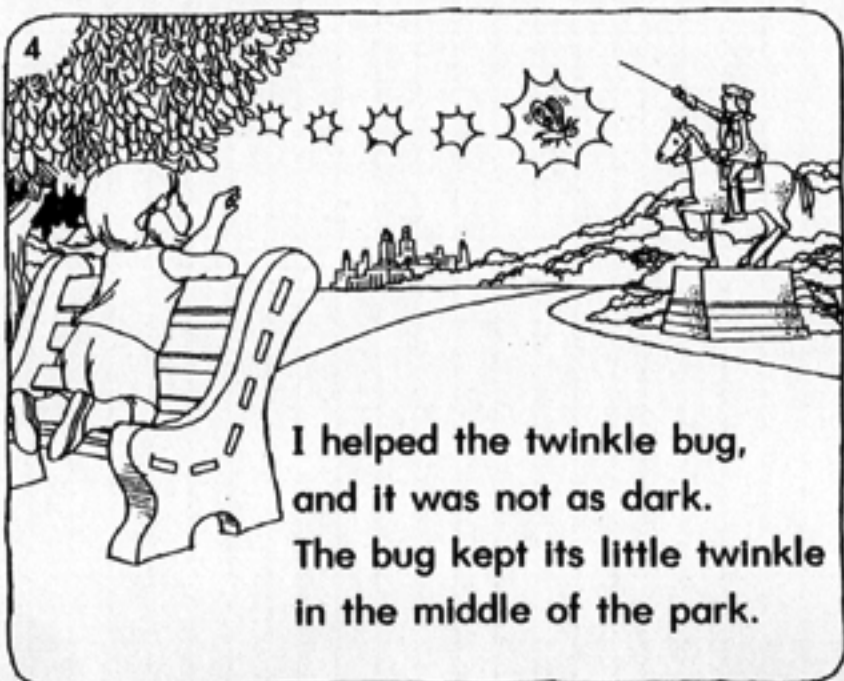

3

The sun went down. It was dark.
A bug was in the park.
Twinkle, twinkle, wink and blink.
The bug had left its mark.

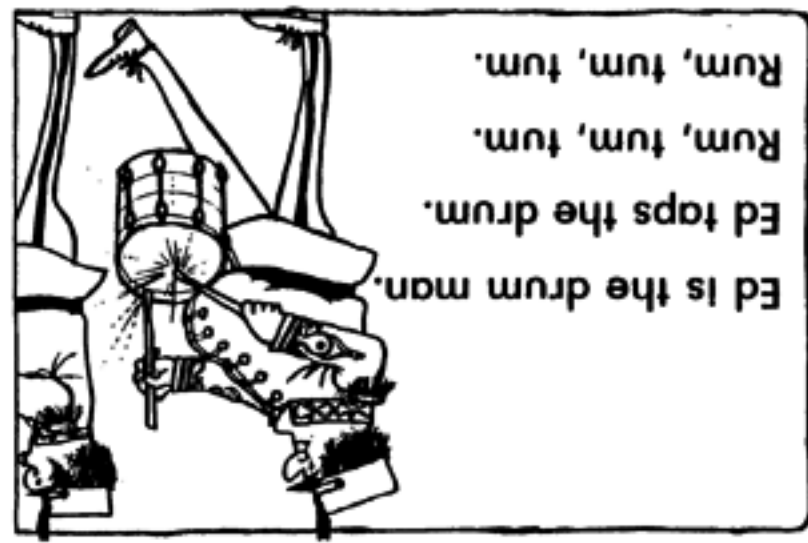

1

I helped the twinkle bug,
and it was not as dark.
The bug kept its little twinkle
in the middle of the park.
